Main Stage The Receptionist By Adam Bock

Directed by Michael Smith-Gallo

At the start of a typical day in the Northeast Office, Beverly deals effortlessly with ringing phones and her colleague's romantic troubles. But the appearance of a charming rep from the Central Office disrupts the friendly routine. As the true nature of the company's business becomes apparent, The Receptionist is The Office meets Black Mirror, and raises disquieting, provocative questions about the consequences of complicity with evil

(an offering in addition to our patron packages).

September 12, 13, 14 at 8:00; September 14 and 15 at 3:00 / Tickets $25*

Complete Game Written and Directed by Mark Liebert

Complete Game is a comedy with a heart. It is the fall of 1970 in metropolitan New York, and everyone has a relationship with our national pastime: attraction or repulsion, bond or divider, job or recreation, link to the past or hope for the future, problem or resolution or some combination of all of the above. Complete Game spins a web to snare aficionado, casual fan and non-enthusiast alike.

(an offering in addition to our patron packages)

September 26, 27, 28 at 8:00; September 28 and 29 at 3:00 / Tickets $20*

Superior Donuts By Tracy Letts Directed by Amy Fox

Set in modern-day Chicago, Superior Donuts depicts the unlikely friendship between a down-and-out donut shop owner and his enthusiastic employee, who also happens to be an aspiring author with a serious gambling problem. Franco, the young writer, wants to update the old shop with healthy choices, music, and friendlier service. However, Arthur, the shop owner, wants to remain set in his ways.

October 25, 26, 27, 31, November 1, 2, 3, 7, 8, 9 / Tickets $25*

It's Only a Play By Terrence McNally Directed by Peyton Thomas

It's the opening night of the play The Golden Egg on Broadway, and the wealthy producer is throwing a lavish party in her Manhattan townhouse. Downstairs the celebrities are pouring in, but the real action is upstairs in the bedroom, where a group of insiders have staked themselves out to await the reviews. The result? A hilarious combination of narcissism, ambition, childishness, and just plain irrationality that infuse this glimpse behind the scenes.

Over My Dead Body
By Michael Sutton and Anthony Fingleton
Directed by Alicia Hayes

Hard times have fallen on the Murder League, a mystery writer's club. Their eccentric detectives and arcane clues have gone out of fashion. What are three septuagenarian writers to do to spark interest in the genre again? Commit the perfect murder, of course. What could possibly go wrong? Pretty much everything, to comedic result.
March 20, 21, 22, 26, 27, 28, 29, April 2, 3, 4 / Tickets $25*

33 Variations
By Moises Kaufman
Directed by Claire Bochenek

A mother coming to terms with her daughter. A composer coming to terms with his genius. And, even though they're separated by 200 years, these two people share an obsession that might, even just for a moment, make time stand still. Drama, memory and music combine to transport you from present-day New York to nineteenth-century Austria.

Madeline's Christmas
 Book and Lyrics by Jennifer Kirkeby, Music by Shirley Mier
 Based on the book by Ludwig Bemelmans
 Directed by Beatriz Esteban-Messina

"In an old house in Paris that was covered with vines lived 12 little girls in two straight lines." So begins this delightful story of Madeline's Christmas! Nothing can stop the resilient Madeline in this delightful Christmas tale when the flu threatens to put a damper on her school's Christmas.

December 7, 8, 14, 15 / Tickets $12 / Performances at 1:30 and 3:30

The Wizard of Oz
 By L. Frank Baum, Adapted by Erin Detrick
 Directed by Tommy Donaldson

When Dorothy drops into the Land of Oz, only one thing is certain: she's got to find a way back to Kansas with a little help from her friends. This imaginative adaptation captures the heart of L. Frank Baum's classic tale.
